Organic food production is a self-regulated industry with government oversight in some countries, distinct from private gardening. Currently, the European Union, the United States, Canada, Japan, and many other countries require producers to obtain special certification based on government-defined standards in order to market food as organic within their borders.

Odd Styrmo: I am always suspicious of companies that hide their 'secrets' with marketing BS. If there was anything there, they wouldn't be afraid to publish the basis for their claims and have a patent for it. There are more reputable companies out there that don't hide their 'secret' and tell you, just like the author here, that the benefits exist, but are limited.
