Preface. A thought conceived but not expressed is at best only an unborn child, not only without any influence on the world, but of whose very existence the world may be unconscious; but once brought forth it becomes part of the living working universe, to work there its appointed season, and possibly to leave its mark for good or evil on all successive time.

It is virtually impossible for man in what the Apostle Paul portrayed as his organic "natural" condition of mind (see What Difference Does It Make), to comprehend the enigma of a paradoxical reality. Yet, he finds himself immersed in a paradoxical world -- often eating the forbidden fruit of the Tree of Duality by embracing one paradoxical truth, while rejecting its opposite that is equally true.
