A race is a grouping of humans based on shared physical or social qualities into categories generally viewed as distinct by society. First used to refer to speakers of a common language and then to denote national affiliations, by the 17th century the term race began to refer to physical (phenotypical) traits. Modern scholarship regards race as a social construct, an identity which is assigned ...

Diary of a Year on the Avon. Interesting shot of a canoe capsized on the wall of the Ringwood weir. Hopefully its the one that has been slowly making its way downstream through the fishery over the past decade, spending its summers on various gravel bars and snags, acting as a warning to transgressors.
