What does the word "apologetics" mean? The word "apologetics". is derived from the ancient Greek word apologia, which means, an apology.. Not an apology in the modern sense of the word - which is to say you're sorry for something. But rather, an apology in the ancient sense of the word - which is to make a reasoned defense of something or someone.

FORCES . A force is any push or pull that causes an object to move, stop, or change speed or direction.; The greater the force, the greater the change in motion will be. The more massive an object, the less effect a given force will have on the object.; Unless acted on by a force, objects in motion tend to stay in motion and objects at rest remain at rest.

The side of a ship on which it was laden (that is loaded) was called the ladeboard, but its opposite, starboard, influenced a change in pronunciation to larboard. Then, because larboard was likely to be confused with starboard because of their similarity of sound, it was generally replaced by port.
